Sean Graber
Chief Digital Officer
EWTN Global Catholic Network

Sean brings a dynamic blend of leadership and innovation to EWTN, with a background in business strategy, digital transformation, and product management.

Previously, Sean served at Mapbox, as Head of Search, where he led a Product and Engineering organization that developed geospatial applications for diverse clients including GM and Toyota, enhancing in-vehicle navigation and powering popular outdoor and business intelligence platforms like AllTrails and Tableau. Prior to that, Sean was a General Manager and Product Leader at Tripadvisor, where he launched the company's first direct-to-consumer subscription product and created Reco, a marketplace connecting travelers with travel advisors. Sean's career also includes roles as a co-founder and entrepreneur, management consultant, and economist.

He has an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth, an MA in International Economics from Universidad de Valencia, and a BA with Distinction from the University of Virginia. Outside of work, Sean enjoys travel and exploring the great outdoors with his wife, Ellie, and four children.
